Of course it’s great to have a well-thought-out reply, but if you’re thinking about what you want to say instead of hearing what the other person is saying, you aren’t really listening and communicating well.. You may be getting your point across — or not, if the other person listens the same way you do — but you’re not having a meaningful interaction with the other person.

The Purpose of Listening: To Understand, Not Reply

In part 3 of the listening test you hear 5 short clips, each from a different speaker, on the same topic. There are 8 options and you have to match the options to the speakers. Obviously that leaves 3 options that don't match any of the speakers. The introduction is always the same and you should pay attention to two things:
