Maisy also loves her quiet times where she can relax and watch the world go by. She often watches the other dogs play without joining in. When they come too close she grumps at them to not invade her space and they listen. We have not seen once ounce of aggression in Maisy. For now we just let her settle in and explore her surroundings here.

Our huge love to the gorgeous, smiley, brave Maisy . I truly feel we're honoured to have been chosen to look after these remarkable, beautiful angels, doesn't make the day-to-day any easier during the tougher times though and my thoughts are particularly with all you guys at the moment. xxxx
